Nineteen Lion Skins Turned In for Bounty

A total of 19 lion skins have been turned into the State Division of Fish and Game for payment of bounty during October. Nine of these were males, and ten females. Shasta county was the high county of kill, accounting for eight lions. Seven of these were killed by State Lion Hunter F. W. Keeler. To the end of October 126 lions were reported killed during 1943; 20 less than for the same period last year.

Bonelli Fights For Sunday Ban On Liquor Sales

Following rejection by the State Board of Equalization of his resolution calling for a ban on the Sunday sale of alcoholic beverages in California for the duration, William G. Bonelli, fourth district member of the Board, has announced his intention to continue urging such a move as a wartime emergency measure to curb absenteeism and promote the general efficiency of manpower, both civilian and uniformed.

"In seeking to have a ban placed on Sunday sales," Bonelli said, "I merely sought to have California take the same step to support the war effort which a majority of the states have placed on their statute books in time of peace to safeguard the welfare of their citizens."

"In the so-called 'open states,' where the sale of alcoholic beverages is licensed as in California, 20 of 28 states have a ban on Sunday sales. Those states where the monopoly system is used have 13 of 17 states with a Sunday ban. Where local option is used, all states have incorporated a Sunday ban into their laws," Bonelli said.

Another New Store Opens in Torrance

William T. Greene, who has been in the wholesale jewelry business in Los Angeles for the last seven years, announced the opening this week of the Torrance Time Shop at 1223 El Prado.

"I have been watching Torrance for the last two or three years," said Greene, "and I consider it has greater possibilities for growth and expansion than any other city in Southern California."

Mr. Greene will move to Torrance as soon as he can find a proper home for his family, as he is anxious to take part in the civic and social life of the city.
